Bulletin On King's Condition Reassures Public LABOR HOLDS 287 SEATS IN BRITISH HOUSE

King's Doctors Say Rest Is Building Up His Strength Again

Sovereign, Though Confined to Bed at Windsor Castle, Is Able to Deal With Such Public Business as Is Brought to His Attention; Three Physicians Issue Bulletin After Consultation.

Windsor, Eng., May 31, 8 p.m.—King George was stated in an official bulletin issued from Windsor Castle this evening to have had a quiet day with some sleep. His Majesty's condition is remaining satisfactory.

Windsor, Eng., May 31.—The anxiety for the safety of the sovereign felt throughout the country since yesterday's announcement that King George was again confined to bed was somewhat relieved this afternoon by the assurance of an official medical bulletin.

This showed that although His Majesty was suffering from the formation of an abscess in the chest, which was the seat of his grave illness last winter, his general condition was good. There was seemingly no cause for immediate alarm.

Another reassuring statement by the doctors was that while the King must be kept to his bed, his condition was not such as to preclude his transacting such public business as it might be necessary to bring to his attention.

Although it was not explicitly stated in the bulletin, there apparently had been a minor operation. This was indicated by the statement that drainage was in progress from the abscess.

RECALLED FROM HOLIDAY
Lord Dawson of Penn, His Majesty's court physician, was recalled from a continental holiday to the King's bedside. Sir Stanley Hewett had been in constant attendance on the King at Windsor Castle, while Dr. Henry L. Martyn, the third physician, is the doctor of the royal family at Windsor.

The three physicians had a lengthy consultation to-day. It was then authoritatively indicated that although great care would have to be taken to maintain His Majesty's health, no anxiety was felt at present for the royal patient.

ELECTION REPORTS
The plans for keeping the King constantly informed of the progress of the general election were abandoned last night. His Majesty discussed the political situation to-day and was told from time to time of the trend of results.

At Windsor Castle, the extent of the nation's solicitude over the King's renewed illness could be measured by the volume of telephonic inquiries from all over the country.

The people of this historic town who followed with an affectionate personal interest the daily comings and goings of the King in his Windsor home stood about the streets and gathered near the castle gates to discuss the latest phases of His Majesty's illness.

London, May 31.—It was authoritatively stated at Windsor Castle to-day there was no change in King George's condition. He passed a fair night.

A bulletin issued at Windsor Castle said: "The King had a fair night. An abscess has formed under the site of an old scar on the right side of the chest and is now draining. The general condition remains good."

"Though the King will need to remain in bed, His Majesty will be able to transact public business."

The bulletin was signed by Dr. Henry L. Martyn, Sir Stanley Hewett and Lord Dawson of Penn.

PRINCE'S PLANS
The Prince of Wales was at Hampton to-day, attending the Royal Counties Agricultural Show. He has a number of engagements for next week. Apparently there has been no alterations in his plans.

The band playing in the usual way during the changing of the guard to-day, not far from His Majesty's apartment.

OTTAWA SOON TO SEND OUT WAR CLAIMS CHEQUES

Ottawa, May 31.—Those persons in Canada who suffered losses during the World War and whose claims were approved by Commissioner Friel will be sent cheques for the full amounts on or about June 15. This was stated at the department of the Secretary of State to-day. Cheques mailed at that time will number about 1,000.

A number of others will be held up owing to the fact that the department is not in possession of information as to where they should be mailed.

NEW ROTARY HEAD IS EUGENE NEWSOM

Dallas, Texas, May 31.—Eugene Newsom of Durham, N.C. was named president of Rotary International at the closing session of the twentieth annual convention here to-day.

MORE BRITISH FILMS URGED BY CHAPTER

National I.O.D.E. Ask For Quota of Twenty Per Cent British Moving Pictures

That the order approach the Federal Government and press strongly for the establishment of a twenty per cent quota system of British films in the moving picture theatres in Canada, was the substance of a resolution proposed by Mrs. W. E. Hodgson of Quebec, and unanimously passed at this morning's session of the National Chapter, I.O.D.E.

The chapter also urged its provincial chapters to co-operate with those provincial governments making efforts to promote the showing of British and educational films, and the members to do all in their power to encourage such efforts.

The resolutions were the outcome of an interesting address by Mrs. J. Hawkins, member of the American Board of Censors for moving pictures.

40,000 DAILY IN VANCOUVER THEATRES
Mrs. Hawkins reminded the gathering that in Vancouver alone the daily theatre population numbered between 20,000 to 40,000, showing the tremendous number influenced by the moving picture industry. In Canada ninety-nine per cent of the industry was in the hands of American interests, and according to the Bureau of Statistics at Washington involves a capital investment of $2,000,000,000.

According to a statement made in New York recently, American moving pictures have sold American modes, manners, machinery and morals to untold millions throughout the world."

Mrs. Hawkins said. She suggested that the women work to secure a larger proportion of British pictures in Canada, such as is in effect in Australia.

136 CANDIDATES IN SASKATCHEWAN

June 6 People Will Vote to Fill Sixty-one of Sixty-three Seats in Legislature

Regina, May 31.—The Saskatchewan general election campaign, seventh in the twenty-four year history of the province, entered its final week to-day with the nomination lists completed. A total of 136 candidates officially entered the ballot fight for sixty-one seats in the Legislature when names were listed yesterday.

In every constituency where balloting will take place on June 6 a supporter of the Liberal Government of Premier James G. Gardiner is a candidate. Sixty of the sixty-one Liberal supporters are listed under the banner of the party which has ruled Saskatchewan since 1905, when the province was established, and the other approved candidate is W. Baker, Labor entry in Moose Jaw.

Arrayed against the Government candidates in forty-three constituencies are Conservative contestants, marshalled by Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, again a candidate in Saskatchewan City. Nineteen Progressives, under the guidance of Charles Little, who is a candidate against the Liberal candidate in Benough constituency, were nominated. Other entries are eleven Independents and two economic groups.

There are sixty-three seats in the Legislature. The polling in the constituencies of H. A. in Croese and Cumberland is deferred.

PLANS FOR WELCOME TO PRINCE HERE

H.R.H. Prince Henry to Reach Victoria To-morrow Morning From Japan

Royal Visitor, Traveling Unofficially, to Remain in City Four Days

Victoria will be host to H.R.H. Prince Henry, more popularly known as the Duke of Gloucester, to-morrow. The Prince is now approaching the coast from Japan, on board the C.P.R. liner Empress of Asia, after conferring the Order of the Garter upon Emperor Hirohito and receiving from the Japanese monarch the Grand Order of the Chrysanthemum.

The royal visitor plans to stay in Victoria for four days and during that period will be a guest at Government House.

Details in connection with the welcome to His Royal Highness, who is traveling unofficially and informally, are being completed this afternoon by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

MEMBERS OF STAFF
Prince Henry's staff includes the Earl of Arlue, Admiral the Hon. Herbert Meade, R.N., C.B., D.S.O., Major-General Sir Hugh J. Ellis, K.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O., Capt. Howard Kerr and H. Lloyd Thomas.

Capt. Kerr is acting as equerry to the Prince.

The mission will break up following its arrival in Victoria. Prince Henry will charge Canada in company with Capt. Kerr. The present itinerary calls for the departure of His Royal Highness from Quebec by the liner Empress of the North on July 9. Owing to the King's illness, however, the itinerary may be subject to change following the Prince's arrival here.

LINEUP DUE EARLY
The Empress of Asia, with the Royal party on board, is due to reach William Head quarantine station at 6 o'clock to-morrow morning from Yokohama.

Immigration and customs regulations will be observed for the Royal party and the ship is expected to berth at the Rithet docks by 8 o'clock.

Without any formalities the Prince will disembark and proceed direct to Government House.

As the royal and ancient game of golf is the Prince's favorite pastime, arrangements are being made to enable him to test out one or more of the Victoria courses.

ARREST FOLLOWS FIRING OF SHOTS

Seattle High School Pupils Wounded When Forced to Dance in Street

Seattle, May 31.—Raymond Payne, sixteen, was arrested to-day for investigation in connection with the wounding of four Queen Anne High School students who were among a group of seven who were forced to dance on a street here last night.

The four students were being treated in a hospital to-day for jagged wounds caused by bullets which sent bits of flying metal and pieces of concrete through the air.

The seven students were walking along a street when two youths appeared. One, who wore a handkerchief about his neck, twirled a revolver.

"Dance," he commanded and fired at the ground. The students danced until one of the four injured fell to the ground. The armed youth and his companion fled.

At the hospital the injured were pronounced painfully but not seriously hurt.

U.S. TENNIS STARS WIN DAVIS CUP SERIES WITH CUBA

Detroit, May 31.—The United States to-day clinched victory in the American zone Davis Cup tennis finals by winning their third straight match, in the doubles against Cuba, 6-2, 6-1 and 6-0.

Johnny Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison clinched the match, winning the points over Captain Ricardo Morales and Herman Upmann of Cuba.

IS RETURNED TO BRITISH COMMONS

RT. HON. J. H. THOMAS
Labor

London, May 31 (Canadian Press Cable)—Right Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary for the Colonies, in the former Labor Government, was re-elected to the Commons as one of the two members for Derby.

THIRTEEN IN NEW COMMONS

London, May 31 (C.P. Cable)—Thirteen women, six of them newcomers, will take their seats in the new British House of Commons, an increase of three over the last House. Nine of them will be included among the Labor Party's membership. The Conservatives re-elected three women and Miss Megan Lloyd George, daughter of the war-time Prime Minister, was the sole woman representative of the Liberal Party whose election had been reported up until early to-night.

The list of women members is as follows, those who were members of the last Commons being marked with an asterisk.

Labor—Margaret Bondfield, Dr. Ethel Bentham, Mrs. Mary Hamilton, Susan Lawrence, Jennie Lee, Lady Cynthia Mosley, Dr. Marion Phillips, Miss Edith Picton-Tuberville, Ellen Wilkinson.

Conservatives—Lady Astor, "Duchess of Atholl," Countess Ivesagh.

Liberal—Miss Megan Lloyd George.

HUSBAND AND WIFE
At least one husband and wife will sit in the new House of Commons. Lady Cynthia Mosley, daughter of the late Lord Curzon, and her husband, Sir Oswald Mosley, were both successful as Labor candidates. Lady Mosley was elected in West Bristol and Sir Oswald was elected in Smeethwick.

The Duchess of Atholl, Conservative, Under-Secretary of the Board of Education, was re-elected in the Kinross Division of Scotland.

NUMBER HUNT FOR ESCOBAR

More Mexican Secret Service Men Sent to Search in B.C.

Vancouver, May 31.—Augmented forces of Mexican Government secret service men are taking part in the search throughout the lower mainland of British Columbia for General Jesus Gonzalo Escobar, leader of the defunct Mexican revolution, and a bag believed to contain a large amount of cash.

Since the party of Mexicans, believed to include General Escobar, his wife, two sons and daughter and Pedro Alaraz, faithful aide, disappeared from the Hotel Georgia here, May 17, nothing has been heard of the fugitive revolutionary leader.

It is known, however, that more than a score of Mexican "tourists" now "holidaying" in Vancouver and other British Columbia points are here for the purpose of finding the vagrant general and his bag of money. Although local police have been requested to try to find Escobar, no formal charge has been laid against him by Mexican authorities.

100 Are Killed Big Saghalien Forest Fires

Tokio, May 31.—Japanese residents of the southern part of Saghalien Island fought to-day for their lives and their homes against forest fires which were believed to have killed 100 persons and burned more than 1,000 homes.

TWINS ESCAPE ELECTION NAMES

London, May 31 (Canadian Press Cable)—The defeat of Dr. C. W. Brock, Labor candidate, in the neighboring South London suburbs of Balham and Tooting was fortunate for his twins, born recently. Had he been elected he had threatened to name them after the constituency—Balham and Tooting.

SIR JOHN SIMON RE-ELECTED TO BRITISH HOUSE

London, May 31 (Canadian Press Cable)—Sir John Simon, one of the Liberal leaders, was re-elected in the Spoken Valley Division of Yorkshire over the Labor and Communist candidates. H. Elvin, Labor, was only 2,000 votes behind Sir John's total of 23,039, but the Communist, Shakti Usmani, polled only 242 votes. Usmani, who is president of the Indian Trade Union Congress, is in jail at Meerut, India, awaiting trial for alleged sedition and his candidacy was a protest against Sir John's candidacy. He will lose his deposit.

THREE LEADERS ARE ELECTED IN GREAT BRITAIN

MacDonald Has Big Lead in Durham; Premier and Lloyd George Win

Postmaster-General Thompson and Other Ministerial Leaders Elected

London, May 31.—The three party leaders, Premier Baldwin, Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald and Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, were elected to the House of Commons in the polling yesterday.

In Seaham, Durham, Mr. MacDonald, Labor leader, polled a crushing vote over his two opponents, totaling 35,615 against 6,821 for W. A. Fearnley-Watling, Conservative, 5,266 for H. A. Haslam, Liberal, and 1,431 for H. Pollitt, one of the leaders of the British Communist Party, who waged a particularly bitter campaign against the former Prime Minister.

CARNARVON VOTE
In Carnarvon, Wales, the vote was: Right Hon. David Lloyd George, Liberal leader, 16,647; J. Bowen Davies, K.C., Conservative, 7,514; Thomas Rhys, Labor, 4,539.

In Bewdley, Worcester, the vote was: Premier Stanley Baldwin, 16,593; S. B. Carter, Liberal, 7,186; S. Hancock, Labor, 3,875.

MISS LLOYD GEORGE WINS
Premier Baldwin's son, Oliver, and Mr. Lloyd George's daughter, Megan, also will be in the next House with their parents. Oliver Baldwin, returned in Dudley, Worcester, is a Laborite. Miss Megan Lloyd George is a Liberal.

She was elected in Anglesey, Wales, over Conservative and Labor opponents.

CHURCHILL RE-ELECTED
Right Hon. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, was re-elected handsily, polling a total of 23,772 votes, against 19,003 votes for G. L. Sharp, Liberal, in the Epping Division of Essex.

BAIL GIVEN ON MURDER CHARGE

$10,000 Is Amount Set For Lakha Singh, to Appear at Nanaimo

Vancouver, May 31.—Pending trial at the Nanaimo fall assizes on a murder charge, Lakha Singh, twenty-two-year-old Hindu, has been granted $10,000 bail by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald in the British Columbia Supreme Court. The judge ordered the accused to find $5,000 cash bail and four sureties for $5,000.

Lakha Singh was committed for trial by Magistrate C. H. Beaver-Potts of Nanaimo on a murder charge arising out of the death on April 20 of Bahh Singh. The application for bail was made by J. E. Bird, who stated the evidence indicated Bahh was killed through a fall from the veranda of a house at Nanoco Bay on a jagged plank.

BANK CLEARINGS FOR MAY GAIN OVER $2,500,000

Victoria bank clearings for the month ending to-day show a gain of more than $2,500,000 over clearings for the corresponding month of last year. This works out at the rate of a gain of about 100,000 for every business day of the month.

The official figures issued by the Clearing House at noon to-day are: May, 1929, $13,626,296; May, 1928, 10,966,943; May, 1927, 10,492,263.

HIS PARTY MAKES LARGE GAINS IN GREAT BRITAIN

RT. HON. RAMSAY MACDONALD
Labor Leader

London, May 31.—With only twenty-four districts unreported to-night, the Labor Party maintained its lead in the new House of Commons, but without an absolute majority. The standing was: Labor, 287; Conservatives, 246; Liberals, 51; Nationalists, 3; Prohibitionist, 1; Independents, 3.

It was impossible for the Conservatives to reach the Labor total, thus making it certain it will be the first time the Labor Party has had the largest representation in the Commons. Even the Conservative and Liberal total was only five more than the Labor figures.

LLOYD GEORGES IN NEW COMMONS THREE IN NUMBER

London, May 31.—Major Gwylm Lloyd George, son of the Liberal leader, captured Pembroke, Wales, from the Conservatives and as a result will accompany his father and sister, Megan, into the new House of Commons.

MEMBERS OF CABINET LOSE AT THE POLLS

Steel-Maitland and Inskip Defeated in British General Election

London, May 31.—(By George Hambleden, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—Two ministers of the Baldwin Cabinet and three Ministers not in the Cabinet were defeated in yesterday's general election, according to returns received up to late this afternoon. The defeated Cabinet Ministers were Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, Minister of Labor, and Sir Thomas Inskip, Attorney-General. The defeated Ministers not in the Cabinet were Sir Frank Merriman, Solicitor-General; Sir Vivian Henderson, Under-Secretary of Home Affairs, and Herbert G. Wills, Under-Secretary of Overseas Trade.

Archbishop's Brother Is Elected In Britain

London, May 31.—Rev. Gordon Lang, elected to the Commons yesterday as Labor member for one of the two Oldham seats, is a brother of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The defeated Ministers not in the Cabinet were Sir Frank Merriman, Solicitor-General; Sir Vivian Henderson, Under-Secretary of Home Affairs, and Herbert G. Wills, Under-Secretary of Overseas Trade.

Runciman Is Elected In Britain

London, May 31.—Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, leading Liberal, was re-elected to the Commons.

Lord Winterton, Under-Secretary of State for India, was re-elected.

DEPORTATION ORDER VETOED

Ottawa Government Allows Two Hindus to Remain in British Columbia

Vancouver, May 31.—Two East Indians, Narangan Singh, Vancouver, and Rattan Singh, Victoria, whom Canadian immigration authorities proposed to deport for alleged illegal entry into the country from the United States, have been permitted to remain as a result of the department countermanding its previous orders.

Habeas corpus proceedings instituted on behalf of the two men by H. S. Wood, K.C., have been abandoned in the B.C. Supreme Court.

Narangan and Rattan denied they had been in the United States and they claimed to have established a domicile here through a residence of twenty-three years.

Pending determination of the habeas corpus proceedings, the two men had been at liberty on $1,000 bail.

LABOR HOLDS 287 SEATS IN BRITISH HOUSE

Latest Returns Give Conservatives 246 as Result of General Election Yesterday; Fifty-one Liberals and Seven Independents Are Declared Elected.

London, May 31.—With only twenty-four districts unreported to-night, the Labor Party maintained its lead in the new House of Commons, but without an absolute majority. The standing was: Labor, 287; Conservatives, 246; Liberals, 51; Nationalists, 3; Prohibitionist, 1; Independents, 3.

It was impossible for the Conservatives to reach the Labor total, thus making it certain it will be the first time the Labor Party has had the largest representation in the Commons. Even the Conservative and Liberal total was only five more than the Labor figures.

At 6:30 p.m., forty-one seats were still to be heard from, including one deferred election and eleven university seats, results from which will not be known until next week. Twenty-nine were to be reported to-day.

GAINS LISTED
The Labor Party at 6:30 p.m. had made 124 gains, the Liberals 32, Conservatives three and Nationalists two. The Conservatives had lost 135 seats, Labor 4, Liberals 17, Independents 2 and Communists 1.

Ridings yet to report will mean some readjustments in the figures, but not material, for the situation is at last definitely defined. The ballot box has said its say, and soon it will be time for the statements to talk. The hour is intensely dramatic.

It is common knowledge the Labor leaders believe if they are called upon to form a government a number of the more advanced Liberals will swing to their side, thus definitely breaking up the historic Liberal Party. This assumes Labor will not only have the largest group in the House, but that they will be so close to a clear majority that the accession of a few radicals from the Liberal fold will complete it. That, however, leaves the most astute political leader, Lloyd George, quite out of the picture.

It is a situation reminiscent of the Eighties and Nineties, when the Irishmen held the balance of power as between the Liberals and Unionists. One historic Liberal Party, the Socialists, but this is easier said than done. Failing that, what? It is asked. Another election in the late Autumn?

Aeroplanes Used In British Election

London, May 31.—Aeroplanes yesterday were used for the first time in a British general election to carry voters to the polls. One was used for this purpose in Manchester, while another, with the Conservative Party colors streaming from it, flew over the Limehouse district of London.

As offices began to close late this afternoon the second great voting rush of the day began. The polls were open until 9 o'clock to-night in every London constituency, except the city of London itself, where the polls closed at 8 o'clock.

DAINTY ENGLISH
SEA GUIDE WORK

Round the camp fires in the little village of Westleton, Suffolk, England, a group of Sea Guides sat listening with rapt attention to one of their number who was telling them a story. A visitor attracted to the spot wondered what could be holding them so intently.

As he drew near he heard the guide on the outer circle of the group ask breathlessly:

"And is he every bit as handsome off the screen as he is on it?"

Then the truth came out. The story teller was Miss Frances Cuyler, the dainty, fair-haired young English girl who is playing the lead opposite Norman Kerry in Sir Hall Caine's "The Bondman" at the Playhouse Theatre this week.

Miss Cuyler had just returned from the Isle of Man and was telling the group about the making of the picture on the Isle and describing Norman Kerry, the star.

France has been a sea guide for seven years and she does not let her film work interfere with it.

DEPICTED IN FILM

Showing some of the British Empire's greatest fighting ships in action, "Carry On" the current screen attraction at the Coliseum Theatre is one of the finest naval pictures ever filmed, according to motion picture critics who have viewed the picture in all the larger cities where it has been shown.

Great dreadnoughts, trim and swift cruisers, and heavily armed destroyers are shown cruising the seas.

As a special added attraction on the stage this week, the eighteen-piece Boys' Navy League Band plays nautical airs. Rolling sea shanties and lively hornpipe tunes are heard on the piccolo, and several patriotic airs are played.

The stage show this week is entitled "Pinched." Miss Leone Webber, "Toby" Leitch, Paul Wallace, Lorus Bagnley and Leon Cluff appear in the play.

CROOKED ELEMENT OF CARNIVAL SHOWN IN "THE SPIELER"

The battle waged by honest against dishonest factions identified with traveling carnivals on which is based "The Spieler," a dramatic Pathe picture, obtains in real life exactly as set forth in this film, declares Renee Adoree.

This capable young actress, who plays the leading feminine role in "The Spieler," is the child of carnival performers. Much of her early life was spent traveling with a French tent show. Consequently she makes this statement with authority.

In "The Spieler," which will be on view at the Columbia Theatre, Miss Adoree is seen as a young woman who inherits a carnival from her father and wages a bitter battle against a solidly entrenched crooked element. Alan

COMMISSION WANTED FOR POWER ISSUE

Esquimalt Board of Trade Asks For Body to Go Into Question

Passing a resolution urging the appointment of a Public Utilities Commission to consider the hydro-electric and power rights situation before the Government definitely decides the Campbell River issue, the Esquimalt Board of Trade voiced its opinion of the water power question at its meeting last night.

Captain R. P. Matheson, secretary of the board, gave his report as delegate to the recent conference called by the Associated Boards of the Mainland and Vancouver Island. He said that the Government's action in regard to the development of the Campbell River power grant would decide whether Vancouver Island was to have industrial development. The fact that two large industries had been unable to come to Victoria last year because of high rates should surely convince the public that low rates were necessary to the district's prosperity.

NEED POOLEY?

Chairman G. E. Hutchison, president of the Esquimalt Board of Trade, invited the audience to ask questions. Councillor Alex Lockley said that he thought it was unfair to hold such a meeting in Esquimalt without having Attorney-General Pooley to address them. He doubted whether the statement that there was insufficient protection in the Water Act was correct, and proceeded to ask questions in regard to conditions on the Mainland. Captain Matheson explained that as the request of the Associated Boards for three months delay had not been granted, it had been necessary to call the meeting at short notice. The decision of the Government might be announced at any time. A notice of the meeting had been mailed to Mr. Pooley on the previous day, he concluded.

PASS RESOLUTION

A resolution which had been passed unanimously last week by the Saanich Council and by the Saanich Board of Trade was then read. The following resolution was moved and seconded: "That this meeting is of the opinion that no water or power rights belonging to the people should be given away until a Public Utilities Commission similar to the commissions which are functioning successfully in other provinces, has been established, and that the rates charged for power should be on the actual cost of the physical assets of the undertaking."

AMENDMENT LOST

Councillor Lockley seconded by Councillor Farley moved an amendment that no action be taken until Mr. Pooley had been given an opportunity to address a meeting on this subject. The amendment was lost, and the motion carried. The secretary was instructed to forward copies to the Government.

The chairman asked members of the Esquimalt Playing Fields Association to remain after the adjournment of the meeting to consider the question of co-operating with the Board of Trade in organizing a boat excursion. A committee was formed to report to the two organizations at meetings on Tuesday.

About thirty attended the meeting.

delightful solos were sung by Mrs. Cieri and Mrs. Shrimpton, accompanied by Miss Brumpton and Mrs. Fay McMillan. This musical programme was greatly enjoyed alike by the card players and the large number of tea guests. Tickets for the card party on Wednesday next may be obtained from Mrs. McManus and Mrs. Hunter.

Communion Service Held—St. Andrew's Cathedral was filled to capacity at the eight o'clock mass on Trinity Sunday morning, to witness the touching and impressive first communion ceremonies in which forty small children took part. The children, boys and girls, were from St. Louis College and St. Ann's. The procession formed in St. Ann's kindergarten, and under the direction of the sister in charge, crossed the cathedral and passed up the centre aisle to the appointed places for the little ones. The banner bearer and the children carrying the streamers lead. They were met by small acolytes, who conducted them to their places, and later in the ceremony preceded them into the sanctuary. The cathedral was beautifully decorated, the high altar and side shrines brilliantly lighted with many candles, the music was provided by the pupils of the choir of St. Ann's Academy, who sang very sweetly. The special sermon, in simple language and appealing directly to the children, was preached by Rev. Father Cyril Evans, M.A., rector of St. Andrew's Cathedral. Following the ceremony the little band of children were photographed at St. Ann's kindergarten before going home with their parents.

INVESTMENT TRUST BILL IS HELD OVER

Ottawa, May 31.—The banking and commerce committee of the Senate yesterday recommended that the bill respecting the investment trust companies be not further proceeded with at this session owing to the probably early prorogation of Parliament.

The bill would restrict the investments of such companies and was opposed earlier in the session before the committee by a deputation from Toronto headed by Right Hon. Arthur Meighen. The bill sponsored by T. L. Church, Conservative, Toronto Northwest, regarding the registration of the owners of newspapers, was reported against by the miscellaneous private bills committee of the Senate.

Montreal Terminal Bill Is Advanced

Ottawa, May 31.—Second reading given to the measure amending the Dominion Elections Act by the Commons yesterday and the bill was considered in committee.

The bill authorizing the construction of the Montreal terminal of the C.N.R., at a cost of $50,000,000, was considered in committee and stands for third reading.

OTTAWA EXPLOSION

Ottawa, May 31.—Civic officials are convinced the series of explosions in the main sewers of this city on Wednesday that caused one death and injured a score of people and did $50,000 property damage was caused by gasoline fumes which had found their way into the sewer system. Inspectors searched the various gas-filled stations, but were unable to locate any leaks. Under the direction of Mayor Arthur Ellis, the most thorough investigation is being made.

LONDON STREETS THROGGLED WHILE VOTE REPORTED

Hundreds of Thousands Remained in Before Bulletin Boards Till Early Morning

London, May 31.—Hundreds of thousands of Londoners kept watch into the small hours of this morning as the election figures shifted on hundreds of lofty screens and electric signs.

In Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square and other famous centres of London the jostling crowds took on a carnival appearance. Vendors of various colored balloons elbowed men in evening clothes, while male celebrants waltzed along the pavements masquerading in women's coats and hats. The tops of the buses were crowded with people out to see the spectacle and apparently careless of the fact they were not getting anywhere in the tremendous traffic blockades. Lower Regent Street by midnight was jammed with buses fifty deep. It was estimated at least 30,000 persons had packed into Trafalgar Square, where a great stereoscopic electric bulletin was mounted. Party partisans even decorated the big lions at the foot of the Nelson Monument with their colors, but the police cleared them away.

MANY DANCES

In night clubs, restaurants and hotels and throughout the fashionable West End thousands of London society folk danced the hours away to the early morning while the election returns by radio broke to the music.

Premier Baldwin spent the evening more quietly at No. 10 Downing Street, his official residence, with Mrs. Baldwin and a party of friends. He listened to the returns over the radio.

R. LANCTOT, M.P., DIES IN MONTREAL

Montreal, May 31.—Roch Lanctot, member of Parliament for Laprairie-Naperville, died here yesterday.

Senate Approves Stock Tax Bill

Ottawa, May 30.—The Senate yesterday afternoon gave third reading to the bill amending the Special War Revenue Act. This act provides for the imposition of the new tax on sales of shares of stock.

The bill extending the period where-in returned soldiers may make application for insurance under the Returned Soldier Insurance Act and the act amending the Supreme Court Act also were passed.

The bill which provides for the payment of claims for compensation for losses sustained by civilians of Canada during the World War was given third reading.

MINISTER RE-ELECTED

Winnipeg, May 30.—Hon. W. R. Clubb, Minister of Public Works of Manitoba, was re-elected by acclamation yesterday. A byelection was necessitated in his constituency of Morris, following his resignation to the Cabinet. Mr. Clubb resigned his Cabinet position following admissions of having purchased Winnipeg Electric stock while the Government was negotiating a lease of Seven Sisters Falls with the company.

PARACHUTE JUMPER KILLED

Scranton, Pa., May 31.—Edgar R. "Red" Enoch, twenty-two, parachute jumper, fell 2,700 feet from the wing of an aeroplane to his death in a stunt exhibition at the Ackery Speedway dirt track motor races yesterday. The rings on his parachute fouled as he jumped into space.

RETURNING OFFICER DIES

London, May 31 (Canadian Press Cable).—While on duty as returning officer at the St. Leonard polling station, John McLelland died suddenly yesterday morning. Polling was interrupted for a time, but another official took charge.

VISITED CANADA

London, May 31 (C.P. Cable).—Sir John Marriott, Conservative, defeated in the Commons election yesterday in York by P. C. Burgess, Labor, accompanied the Empire parliamentarians on their tour of Canada last year.

SETTLEMENT NOW MOVING NORTH

In Radio Address Minister of Interior Tells of Canadian Homesteaders

Ottawa, May 31.—Eighty per cent of the 2,750,000 acres taken up by settlers in Canada last year was filled in such northerly districts as Prince Albert, Sask., Peace River and Grand Prairie, Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, declared in an address here last night which was broadcast over a Dominion-wide Canadian National radio network.

"The migration northward has been most pronounced in the Peace River region, where 4,000 homesteads were taken up last year," Mr. Stewart said. "In that district there are still available 40,000,000 acres of fertile land capable of adding millions of dollars to the annual value of the Dominion's crops."

Mr. Stewart painted a glowing picture of Canada's future.

PUBLIC WORKS FUNDS VOTED

Ottawa, May 31.—The House of Commons, dealing with the Public Works Department estimates, yesterday approved an item of $258,945 for telegraph and telephone lines in British Columbia.

Miscellaneous expenditures totaling $1,036,365 were discussed.

An appropriation for roads and bridges totaling $187,000 was carried.

Brig-Gen. J. A. Clark, Conservative, Vancouver-Burrard, said Mr. J. C. Elliott, Minister of Public Works, to give consideration to Vancouver's request for a subsidy for the Second Narrows Bridge.

Mr. Stewart painted a glowing picture of Canada's future.

ROTARY SLOGAN TO BE RETAINED

Dallas, Texas, May 31.—Proposals to abandon the Rotary slogan, "He Profits Most Who Serves Best," and to reduce the per capita tax were defeated at the twentieth annual international convention of the organization here yesterday.

Scarcely any votes were registered for either of the resolutions, and no debate was heard on the matter of the slogan. Hugh Galloway of Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, and Arthur Chadwick, London, spoke in favor of the proposal to reduce the dues from $4.50 to $4. Almon E. Rother of Stanford University and Allen Street of Oklahoma City answered them by saying such action would create a $58,000 deficit under the present budget.

The convention refused to order its 1931 convention held outside of North America, but recommended to the board of directors that it "should" be held on some other continent. The same resolution recommended that at least one out of every four conventions be held away from the United States.

Sidney, May 31.—The regular monthly meeting of the North Saanich Liberal Association will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Matthew's Hall. The meeting will select official delegates to the convention of the Nanaimo Riding Liberal Association, to be held at Duncan next Wednesday, June 5.

CALMLY PHONES TO ADMIT KILLING

In a calm, matter-of-fact tone, Richard Burrows, nineteen, arrested in Denver, talked over long distance telephone with police in Phoenix, Arizona, and told them where they could find the body of Jack Martin, twenty-seven, whom he confessed slaying. Discovery of the body substantiated Burrows' admission that he had killed the man who had picked him up while hitchhiking through Arizona. His parents live in Chicago and he ran away from St. John's Military Academy, he said.

FINE SUCCESS IS SCORED AT CONCERT HERE

Firemen's Band, Aided By Local Artists, Is Well Received

Aided by several of the city's outstanding artists, the Victoria Fire Department Band last night provided a real musical treat with its concert at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

Under the baton of Al Prescott, the firemen covered a wide range of selections during the programme and prolonged applause greeted their presentations. Solo numbers by gold medalists at the recent musical festival were also heartily welcomed.

After the programme had been opened with "O Canada" by the band, the rousing march, "El Capitan," by Sousa, was rendered with a brilliancy of treatment. Von Suppe's "Poet and Peasant," in which splendid restraint and control were exhibited, proved the band's test piece, while "Chimes of Normandy," by Planquette, and "American Patrol," by Maccham, were rendered in an extremely capable manner.

CORNET SOLO
Bandman J. Newell, in a delightful rendition of Godard's "Berceuse" as a cornet solo, gained a fine ovation. The rich accompaniment of the band enhanced the beauty of this reposeful theme.

"Lo! Hear the Gentle Lark" and "One Morning Very Early" were delivered by Mrs. W. H. Wilson in impressing style. J. H. Jones played the flute obligato.

MISS HARTREE

Miss Dorothy Hartree elicited tremendous applause after completing Balf's "The Arrow and the Song" and "A Piper" (Michael Head). Her great artistry appeared in the rendition of these themes and left her audience wanting more.

Schubert's glorious "Ave Maria," portrayed in a pleading tone by Miss Irene Bick, drew instant approval, while her "Liebesfreud," by Kreisl, and "Tempo di Menuetto," by Paganini-Kreisl, were capably rendered. "Trade Winds" and "Two Grenadiers" were the subjects chosen by Dr. T. H. Johns and his deep, sonorous tones, ringing throughout the theatre, gave an atmosphere which left little to be desired.

CHORAL NUMBERS

The Schubert Club Choir, under the leadership of Frederic King, cast a spell-like feeling over the audience in its rendition of Fletcher's "The Cloud," in which the members rose to the peak of expressive art. "Two Roses," by Gilbert, and the well-known "Miserere" from Verdi's "Il Trovatore," in which Mrs. Eden and Mrs. Stark were soloists, formed the choir's other contributions.

"The Pilot," by Dr. Protheroe, was chosen by the Victoria Male Choir as its first number. Under Mr. King's conductorship the members of the choir again proved themselves talented artists. They concluded with C. Lee

WHERE BIG RAILROAD FIGHT IS BEING STAGED

This remarkable aerial photo shows the scene of the newest railroad battle, the site of the huge new Van Sweringen terminal project at Cleveland, Ohio, and the old Ontario Street station which forms a "bottle neck" to tracks out of the terminal. Defying the Wheeling's board of directors, Frank E. and Charles F. Taplin, minority stockholders and proponents of a rival eastern trunk line, obtained an injunction to prevent the Wheeling from selling the site to the Van Sweringens and this action threatens to hold up the big project for an indefinite time. The case is also before the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Taplins have been fighting the Van Sweringens for years for control of the Wheeling. The black line above outlines the big terminal project and the dotted white line shows the site of the old Wheeling depot.

JOINT SINGING

Concluding the programme, the Schubert Club and Victoria Male Choirs joined in the singing of "Land of Hope and Glory," the strain of which was taken up by the audience.

The concert was held under the patronage of the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Helen Mackenzie. Others present were Mayor Herbert Anson and Mrs. Anson, Alderman and Mrs. John Worthington, Alderman H. O. Litchfield and ex-Mayor J. Carl Pendray.

In a short address before the close of the programme, Alderman Worthington, chairman of the fire wardens, thanked the assisting artists.

I.O.D.E. VISIT "MOLTON COMBE"

Guests of Municipal Chapter at Tea Yesterday; Wreath Laid on Soldiers' Graves

After the reading of the lengthy report of the educational work of the Order, presented by Miss W. Gordon, and the adoption of her recommendations for the facilitating of this work, the National Chapter I.O.D.E. journeyed yesterday afternoon to enjoy a little social diversion.

The Municipal Chapter of Victoria acted as hostesses at a delightful tea and reception at "Molton Combe," the home of Mrs. W. Curtis Sampson, provincial president. Mrs. L. A. Genge, municipal vice-regent, welcomed the many guests in a graceful little address and introduced little Miss Maryann Peterson, the youngest member of the order in Victoria, who presented a beautiful bouquet to Mrs. J. A. Stewart, the national president, on behalf of the Victoria members.

In introducing the little girl, who also charmed the gathering with a spirited Highland dance in costume, Mrs. Genge noted that in addition to being the youngest member of the order in the city she had also the distinction of being awarded the prize of the Empire's finest baby at the British Empire Exhibition, the champion Scottish dancer of her age in the Pacific Northwest, and was also the great-granddaughter of the man who laid the foundation stone of the first public school in Canada.

Miniature Union Jacks and a massing of red, white and blue flowers made the attractive decoration of the tea-table. Mrs. Hugo Beaven being responsible. Mrs. W. Ellis, Mrs. Prior, Mrs. A. D. Muskett, Mrs. K. C. Symons and Mrs. H. J. Davis comprised the committee in charge of the tea arrangements, while Mrs. Ernest E. looked after the transportation of the many guests. Girl Guides in their smart uniforms helped in serving tea.

En route to Oak Bay, a halt was made at Ross Bay Cemetery, where under the guidance of Mrs. Mortimer Appleby, convener of the soldiers' graves committee of Victoria, a visit was paid to the ex-service men's plot.

Mrs. Stewart, on behalf of the chapter, placed upon the Cross of Sacrifice a beautiful wreath of laurel and red, white and blue blossoms.

Last night the members held a dinner followed by a round table conference at the hotel when many interesting suggestions were made as to the workings of the order. Mrs. Stewart, who presided, seized the occasion to present Mrs. Curtis Sampson, on behalf of the national executive, with a beautiful basket of roses and daffodils, and to Mrs. L. A. Genge, municipal vice-regent, a bouquet of lilies and violets.

DEATH REVEALS SECRET ROMANCE

Groom Claims Body of Bride Who Was a Roseland Girl

Spokane, May 31.—Death last night revealed a romance and secret marriage when Melville M. Smith claimed the body of his bride of two months, known to his friends here as Millicent Mary Wall.

Smith said he and Millicent were married at Newport March 18 last, and had planned to make their secret public in a short time. Only members of the couple's immediate families knew of their elopement.

Millicent, who was twenty-two years old, succumbed to complications which followed an appendicitis operation May 22. She was a native of Roseland, B.C., but had lived here five years.

Lake Hill W.I.—The monthly meeting of Lake Hill Women's Institute will be held on Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock in the institute room at the Community Centre. Mrs. Hutchison will give a demonstration of salad making.

The guests present were Miss Helen Hayward, Miss Frances Bell, Miss Jean Moody, Miss Eleanor Dinsdale, Miss Justa McKenna, Miss Marjorie Raymond, Miss Doris Woolison, Miss Grace Humber, Miss Elaine Gallier, Miss Rena Fleming, Miss Sheila Stewart, Miss Florence Whitney and Miss Louise Wilkerson.

After an extensive tour of the United States for the purpose of studying the electrical development and distribution, Sir Andrew Dunsmyr, chairman of the Government Electrical Board of Britain and former chairman of the Victoria Royal Commission which investigated marketing provincial difficulties, stayed a few hours in Vancouver before leaving over Canadian Pacific railway lines for Ottawa. He is on his way home to Britain. Sir Andrew is accompanied by Mr. Archibald Page, chief engineer of the British board.

Guests registered at the Belvedere Hotel, Seattle, include: V.I. recently, include: Capt. Andrew Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson, Mrs. J. F. Morrison, Mr. H. Rusley, Mr. B. R. Honoluli, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Miss Helen Fowler, Miss Phyllis Fowler, Victoria; Mr. R. W. Fowler, Vancouver; Mr. E. Morgan, Vancouver; Mr. N. Bonadale, Victoria; Miss B. W. MacDonald, Vancouver; Major and Mrs. J. N. Gibson, Esquimalt; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Storey, Moncton, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Helz, Victoria; Miss Virginia Bellings, Tacoma; Mr. Wm. O. Thornalley, Seattle.

In honor of Miss Helen Hayward, whose wedding will take place tomorrow evening, Miss Elaine Gallier entertained at a delightful tea on Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. Justice and Mrs. W. A. Gallier, St. Charles Street. At the tea hour, Miss Gallier was assisted by Miss Betty McGregor and Miss Florence Whitney, who presided at the tea table, which was very attractive with a floral arrangement of white lilies and white candles in silver sconces. Among those present were the Misses Helen Hayward, Louise Wilkerson, Louise Pollard, Sheila Stewart, Wilma and Ena Henderson, Eleanor Dinsdale, Grace Humber, Gwen Winsby, Doris Rines, Elsie Watt, Helen and K. Smith, Doris, Jean and Athalie Gibson, Justa McKenna, Jean Moody, Gertrude Hill, Rena Fleming, Mildred Phillips, Margaret Adam, Beatrice and Gertrude Hicks, Frances Bell, Audrey Tooley, Ethel Bale, Dorothy Greenwood, Phyllis Allen, Norma Pendray, Florence Whitney, Betty McGregor, Doris Woolison and Mrs. A. C. Birch Jones.

Word has been received from Santa Monica, Cal., of the death of Miss Rose Anderson, daughter of the late Alexander Caulfield Anderson of Rosebank, Saanich. Miss Anderson was well known in Victoria. She was a graduate nurse of the Royal Jubilee Hospital and lived nearly all her life in Victoria. She has resided in California for the last ten years. She leaves to mourn her loss four brothers, James R. Alex. and Walter Anderson of Victoria, and Arthur of Duncan; also a nephew and three nieces—James R. Gaudin, White Horse, Mrs. J. S. Harp, Knapp Island, Mrs. Bond of Toronto and Miss Kate E. Gaudin of Victoria. Her sister, Mrs. James Gaudin, predeceased her on the nineteenth instant.

GRADUATION OF JUBILEE NURSES DRAWS HUNDREDS

Lieut. Governor Attends Exercises of Graduation at Metropolitan United Church

Beautiful Flowers Surround Platform; Central Wing Will Be Needed Soon

An "Oasis in the Desert," was the term used last evening by Lieutenant-Governor H. Randolph Brown, to describe the scene of the graduation exercises of the 1929 class of the Training School for Nurses of the Jubilee Hospital, which were held at the Metropolitan United Church, which proved inadequate to hold the numerous friends who had assembled to honor the graduating nurses.

Long before the appointed time for the opening exercises, the interior of the church presented a happy scene, filled to capacity with interested citizens, and gay with a profusion of handsome floral tributes, massed around the platform and arranged in baskets tied with tulle ribbons in pastel shades and in bouquets.

Mr. Edward Parsons presided at the organ and to the strains of a triumphant march, the members of the graduating class filed into the church, and took their appointed places in the choir loft preceded by a large number of undergraduates who occupied the front pews.

Rev. W. J. Sipprell, D.D., opened the programme with a very small group of members as a representative of the church.

Premier Tolmie in his address to the graduating class, complimented them on their achievement of a profession that played such an important part in the community and rendered such great service to the public and voiced the heartfelt wishes for their future success in their calling. He paid tribute to the members of the medical profession in Victoria, who were factors in the development of the hospital, which had grown from a very small beginning to be one of the most modern and up-to-date institutions in the Dominion, as well as to Mr. George McGregor, president of the board of directors.

BEST CLASS OF ALL

Mr. McGregor, in speaking to the nurses, stated that in his opinion the class of 1929 had done more for the welfare of the Jubilee Hospital than any other class that had gone through the training school, and that Miss Mitchell and her associates would be sorry to lose them. He thanked the Premier as a representative of the Government, and Mayor Anson, representing the city of Victoria, for the liberal assistance given the hospital.

He also thanked all who voted for the hospital by-law for the Nurses' Home, which will be completed by the end of the year.

Mr. McGregor stated that in the near future, it would be necessary to start the central building at the hospital and laughingly suggested that perhaps the Premier and the Mayor would find the money necessary for the building.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, in complimenting the graduating class, rejoiced in their success in taking up such a noble profession, and hoped that they would maintain the traditions of the Jubilee Hospital. In referring to their years of training he remarked that it was not so much the hours that were put in working, but what was put into the hours' work that counted, of which they were to be mindful in their future work. In conclusion, he extended congratulations to Mr. McGregor and his directors for their achievement in getting the new Nurses' Home.

Mayor Anson, in his address to the class complimented them on having such a high standard and obtaining a profession that was the most unselfish, and required real ability and skill. He also touched on the question of hospital finances, in which connection the name of Mr. McGregor was again mentioned as being one who did not wait for opportunity to knock at the door, but opened the door. The Mayor considered it might be a good policy for Jubilee to establish an out-patients department.

Miss Irma Davies read the valedictory address, voicing the appreciation of the class of 1929 to fellow nurses, directors and instructors and to the members of the medical profession for lectures and attendance during illness.

PRESENTED SCHOLARSHIP

The Robert S. Day Memorial Scholarship was presented by Mrs. Day to Miss Mary Kennedy King, who won this prize that is awarded to the graduate nurse of her year who has attained to the highest degree of general proficiency in theoretical and practical work, and who also possesses those qualities of mind and spirit which should characterize members of the nursing profession and enable them to uphold the high ideals which find expression in consecrated personal service.

The motto connected with the scholarship is "For their sakes (suffering humanity) I consecrate myself" (John xvii, 19). The scholarship was established in 1923.

S. J. Drake, chairman of the training school committee, presented the undergraduates' prize as follows: Two scholarships of $25 each, presented by the board of directors: First, Miss Irene Helgesen, "the pupil in her junior year standing highest in practical work"; second, Miss Betty Bryden, "the pupil in her intermediate year, standing highest in her theoretical work." A third scholarship of similar value "to the graduate nurse of her year." (Concluded on page 7)

VEGETABLES MADE INTO ATTRACTIVE PERSONALITIES

Mrs. G. W. H. writes:

"I noticed in your valuable column a query about making vegetables attractive to children. May I offer a suggestion? It has helped my little daughter aged two and one-half years. Several months ago I made a chart of black cardboard, and on it glued portions of vegetables made from colored paper and 'humanized' the eyes, mouths, hands and feet. They are Helen's little friends and she has named them 'Carrie Carrot', 'Billy Bean', 'Sally Spinach', 'Oswald Onion', and so on, and they hang in Helen's bedroom. They have become very real to her and she wouldn't think of not eating them when they come especially for her dinner, lest their feelings be hurt.

"When I am preparing dinner, she watches me and the conversation is often, 'Oh, there are Carrie Carrot and Billy Bean! But where is Sally Spinach?'

"To which I say, 'Sally couldn't come to-day, but she will come tomorrow.'

"When we go shopping she helps pick out the vegetables and says, 'There are my friends.'

ANSWER

What child could fail to feel an interest in vegetables that seemed so personal to her?

Right in line with this same excellent suggestion is the idea of letting children cut out pictures of vegetables and cereals from the colored advertisements of them, and then after seeing what is being prepared in the kitchen choose their dinner and select the same in pictured form. The glowing pictures lend flavor to the sometimes pallid articles which appear on their plates. I'm sorry to say that I feel a great deal of the dislike children have for vegetables is because mothers don't cook them appetizingly. Vegetable "plates" in hotels, tea rooms and restaurants, can be as different as if they were not prepared of the same vegetables.

Mothers would do better to invent some method of interesting children in vegetables instead of simply reiterating that vegetables are good for them. If there is any phrase that will take the heart out of an appetite, it is that one: "It's good for you." No one wants to eat what is good for him; he wants to eat what is pleasing and appetizing to him, and any method which makes eating a treat to be enjoyed, instead of a duty to be performed, will do away with the necessity for teasing a child to eat.

Fish Mold

Appearance in foods means much in summer. An inexpensive fish mold for jellied fish salads and a pretty flower mold for desserts are well worth their inexpensive price.

year other than the one who received the Robert S. Day Memorial Scholarship, who attains the highest number of credits in her provincial examinations," has still to be awarded.

The president of the Graduate Nurses' Association presented their annual bursary to Miss Mary Cartwright.

Dr. A. G. Price's prize "for highest marks in examination on communicable diseases" was won jointly by Miss Ralphena A. Winch and Miss Hilda R. Burton.

Dr. E. W. Boak presented his own prize "for highest marks in examination on general surgery" to Miss Hilda R. Burton.

Dr. D. M. Baillie's prize "for highest marks in examination on medicine" was presented by Dr. E. M. Pearce to the donor's behalf to Miss Margaret Cartwright.

The following composed the graduating class of 1929 who received their diplomas from Mr. McGregor and their badges from Miss Mitchell, superintendents of nursing: Catherine H. Albutt, Trilby A. E. Davies, Ilma Davies, Eva Kathleen Hamilton, Hilda Margaret Rendell, Florence Vivadell, Bell, Margaret Eileen Carruthers, Wilburia Florence Gladyde Ede, Frances Mainwaring Johnson, Dorothy Phillips Langdon, Frances Leona Lamb, Elinor Phyllis Mason, Mary Kennedy King, Margaret Frances Thompson, Helen Margaret Whitely, Victoria; Eva May Ballard, Alberta; Nettie R. Bonar, Mitchell, B.C.; Dorothy Mary Brown, Silvertown, B.C.; Margaret Edwina Gavin, New Westminster, B.C.; L. Jean Halliday, Kingcome Inlet, B.C.; Eva Irene Johnston, West Sumnerland, B.C.; Margaret Marion Marshall, Brandon, Man.; Janet Gold Marshall, Union Bay, B.C.; Kathleen F. MacDonald, Virden, Man.; Mary Jamieson McKay, Waldo, B.C.; Myrie Catherine McDougall, Avonlea, Sask.; Laura McLachlan, New Westminster, B.C.; Frances Miriam Felly, Chilliwack, B.C.; Kathleen Tingle, New Denver, B.C.; Kathleen Maude Watson, Calgary, Alta.; Selma Dorothy Andrew, Virden, Man.; Marion Irene Blakeburn, Virden, Man.; Vera Elizabeth Brown, West Vancouver, B.C.; Jean Madelyn Blewett, Ummerville, B.C.; Hilda Ross Burton, Chilliwack, B.C.; Lorna Carmichael, Chilliwack, B.C.; Edith Ruth Denham, Chilliwack, B.C.; Doreen Elford, Shawinigan Lake, B.C.; Helen Frances Paul, Vancouver, B.C.; Frances Evelyn Winter, Iloco, B.C.; Ralphena Alice Winch, Hazelton, B.C.; Elizabeth Crompton Sewell, Vancouver, B.C.

Owing to unavoidable absence, Miss Verna Beale Curran of Victoria, who is ill, did not receive her diploma, nor Margaret Lumsden McIntosh of New Westminster, who is abroad in Europe. Among those who were seated on the platform were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Premier Tolinie, Mayor Anson, Miss Mitchell, Mrs. R. S. Day, Mrs. C. W. Rhodes, Mr. McGregor, Dr. E. M. Pearce, S. Drake, C. Williams and Dr. R. L. Miller.

Duncan

The resignation of Miss Muriel Claxton, who has been supervisor for nearly two years, was regretfully accepted by Cowichan Health Centre committee on Thursday afternoon. Miss Claxton is leaving to visit her parents in England and to take a postgraduate course.

In her place Dr. H. E. Young, provincial health officer, has appointed Miss Blanche Mitchell, a highly qualified nurse who has been a member of the staff for the past three months. Miss Mitchell has also had training as a teacher.

TO AVOID TUMBLES

One mother says:

I used to waste so much of my valuable time in the early morning, sitting beside baby while she was on her nursery chair. I left her sitting alone several times, but she always quivered around so that she invariably upset herself and the chair and had received several bad bumps. So daddy solved the problem by putting an ordinary screen door hook on the back of the chair and screwing an eye into the wall at the proper height. It is simple enough to remove the chair with this arrangement and now I can go about my work without worrying constantly about the baby, and she will stay "put," happy with the few toys that I provide for her. It is time for her to get up. (Copyr. 1929, Associated Editors Inc.)

THREE LEADERS ELECTED IN GREAT BRITAIN

How do YOU tell the difference?

Solid silver and silver plate may look very much alike. Pure soap and impure soap may also look very much alike.

Yet it's easy to tell the difference if you look for the "sterling" mark on silver and the "purity" mark on soap. But this "purity" mark is not on every soap. Sunlight is the only soap which is so carefully made from highest grade ingredients that it is stamped "Guaranteed pure and to contain no adulterant whatsoever."

Being all pure soap, Sunlight dissolves readily. It forms plenty of suds so quickly . . . lasting suds which cleanse most economically. They wash more clothes beautifully clean without harm to fabric or colours . . . and Sunlight's pure, gentle suds never could roughen or hurt your hands.

To the women who have once used Sunlight, other soaps are never really satisfactory. Look for the $5,000 Sunlight Guarantee of Purity on every carton. It means real economy—longer life to your clothes—protection to your hands.

Archie Compston Defeats Hagen In First Match

Famous British Pro Hands U.S. Star Bad Defeat In 36 Holes

Score Is 8 and 7 in First of Two Thirty-six-hole Exhibition Matches Played To-day Over Moorpark Course; Second and Final Match Will Be Played at Birmingham To-morrow.

Moorpark, Eng., May 31.—Archie Compston, British professional golfer, won the first of two thirty-six-hole matches from Walter Hagen, U.S. pro to-day, 8 and 7 to play. They will play the second and final match at Birmingham to-morrow.

Hagen dropped six holes in a row to lose the match. Hagen won the twenty-third hole to reduce Compston's lead to two up, but the big Briton then turned on the United States star and fairly smothered him with a flock of pars and birdies.

The open champion's par four was good enough to win the twenty-third, but his game collapsed after that. British public opinion forced Walter Hagen to keep his date with Compston, star English pro, but all the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't get "The Hag" out of bed in time to reach Moor Park at 10.30 this morning when the 36-hole match was to begin. Hagen kept Compston and a gallery of 1,500 waiting for nearly one hour before he turned up at the course. Compston also showed he could be temperamental, for he waited until Hagen arrived before going to the clubhouse to get into his golf togs.

HAGEN KEPT WAITING

Thus for ten minutes Hagen, himself an hour late, stood at the first tee before his British opponent was ready for the start of the match. Hagen won the first hole after Compston sliced his drive into the rough, sent his third into a bunker near the green and needed six. Hagen was bunkered on his second, but got down with two putts for five. Compston squared the match on the second hole with a par four. Hagen was bunkered on his second and overran the green with his third, chipped back and sank a long putt for five. Hagen's putt for a two hung on the edge of the cup at the short third, which was halved in three. The fourth hole was halved in birdie three and the fifth was halved in par fours after Compston drove into a bunker.

Hagen missed the green with his second, but chipped to within a yard of the cup. The sixth also was halved in five. Then Compston broke the

Every Game Won By Grimes Makes Giant Fans Weep

Pittsburgh.—As times goes merrily on, the Grimes-Aldridge trade stands out more and more as one of the worst deals that John McGraw ever engineered in his long baseball career. It may be remembered that McGraw last year swapped Grimes even to Pittsburgh for Vic Aldridge. Aldridge never did get in condition and was released, while Grimes proceeded to win twenty-five games while losing only fourteen for the Pirates.

Not content with that showing in 1928, Grimes has started out this season as if he intends to better that mark. He won his first six games before May 20. And with the Pirates improving, it looks as if he will win many more for them this season, perhaps more than he did last year.

"We will run over this list again: Clothes lines, fishing nets of all varieties, fishing lines, miles of string that tie up your parcels, twines used by binders in the wheat fields, heavy cable rope used in hoisting, strong as steel—in fact, every variety of rope and twine we know. There is a firm in B.C. where there are 100 employees making 25 varieties of rope and 12 varieties of twine—everything from string to a rope almost a foot in circumference. That is something you should all remember."

B.C. PRODUCTS BUREAU

Bobby Jones on Golf

Henry Cotton, the young English professional who visited the United States to take part in the winter tournaments, mildly scored the purely United States habit of providing so-called winter rules for tournament play. Under these rules the player has the right to lift and clean his ball upon the putting green.

The U.S.G.A. has long looked with disfavor upon any concessions in this direction. The rules of golf require that, except in a few rare situations, the ball must be played as and where it lies unless a penalty be incurred for moving it. Allowing the ball to be lifted opens the door to anyone who might be minded to take advantage of the rule to improve his lie. I admit that I have never seen the rule abused in this way and it may be that the more serious aspect is the responsibility placed upon the player to be certain that he replaces the ball exactly as he found it. Whatever the effect may be, it is certain that the game is not helped by permitting a ball once in play to be lifted for any purpose. Mud on the ball, bad lies, and soggy greens are circumstances and conditions which have to be met, and they can be met and overcome by one possessing sufficient skill.

When Willie Hunter beat me in the National Amateur at St. Louis in 1921, I was impressed with the necessity of adapting one's game to existing conditions. The course was very wet that day and, as the turf on the putting greens was not heavy, a ball pitched with backspin invariably picked up a big chunk of mud. Before the rain on the previous day I had played about as well as I could wish so I expected to beat Willie without too much difficulty. But after the soaking rain, the iron shots and pitches which had continually left me holeable putts for birdies the day before, stopped no farther from the hole but the putts ceased to be holeable. It was like putting with an egg. Naturally, I didn't like it but there was nothing I could do about it.

A BIT OF HEADWORK
But Willie knew something which could be done and that something made enough difference to win the match for him. Instead of steep quick-stopping shots Hunter played every shot to the green on a low trajectory designed to roll several yards across the wet turf. The advantages of that type of shot were twofold—first it was not likely to pick up mud as it hit the ground and second, whatever mud did adhere to the ball was dissolved by the roll over the sodden grass.

I remember particularly the fourteenth hole of the second round, the thirty-second of the match, which really was the final turning point. I was out up to the time of the second shot stopped less than ten feet from the hole. Willie, putting a clean ball, holed his putt, a task which I found impossible with my mud-covered sphere. I think it was then that I realized that it was no freak of fortune which was giving my opponent the advantage on the green. Certainly the lesson should have sunk in by that time.

AN INVOLUNTARY ACTION
In stroke competition it is impossible to avoid some amount of lifting and replacing. The man nearer the hole does not always want to hole the shot one and move out of the way. He may feel that to do so would endanger the stroke. In that case there is nothing to do but mark the other ball. But sitting behind the ninth green at Olympia Fields I could not help noticing that almost every player who marked his ball rubbed it clean

BABE CHEERS PANIC VICTIMS

"Sure—I'll autograph one for you" . . . And the pain-twisted face of eleven-year-old Leon Gaffner became wreathed in happy smiles. For none other than Babe Ruth came to visit him, and several other injured in a New York hospital, where they were confined by injuries received in the recent panic at the Yankee Stadium during a sudden rainstorm. Here you see the Bambino autographing a baseball for the young patient while pretty Mrs. Ruth smiles and holds his hand.

either in his hand or upon his knickers before replacing it. In nine cases out of ten the action was involuntary, done unthinkingly or prompted by nervousness; in the tenth case no doubt in ignorance of the rules. In no case was there any attempt at concealment.

Apparently insignificant though the matter may be, those who have attempted to put a mud-laden ball will appreciate the value of a clean one. After playing in tournament after tournament where cleaning is permitted, it is hard for the player to realize that it is not an absolute right. It is very hard indeed to call a person on a thing of this kind, but the practice ought to be discouraged.

If the course is in playable condition the likelihood of picking-up mud is a hazard of the game just as much as bunkers or anything else. If a ball may be lifted on the putting green, why not in the fairway? If the course is not in playable condition then the competition should be postponed until it is.

IT'S FULL OF MENACE

No. 12, Tete Jaune—165 yards, Par 3.

Many an otherwise fine score has been wrecked by this hole on the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course, Jasper National Park, Alberta, over which the Canadian and Western Canada Amateur Championships will be played, Aug. 19-24, this summer. The reason is obvious by a study of the green in the upper photo and of the lay-out as shown in detail by the lower panel.

Fine fields of golfers are assured for the two big events over this course this summer and the dove-tailing of the Western Canada Championship with the Dominion title event, insures plenty of competitive golf for experts and dubs alike.

INTERCITY MATCH BILLED TO-MORROW

Vancouver Island and Mainland School Cricketers to Play at Mount Tolmie.

Vancouver Island school all-stars will meet a representative Vancouver school cricket eleven in the sixth annual match for the Cameron Cup at the University School grounds to-morrow.

In all previous games the local team has won and hopes to carry off the honors in the coming encounter. However, reports intimate that the Mainland squad will be stronger this year than it has been before and should give the Island team stiffer competition.

The match, which will be an all-day one, will commence at 10.30 o'clock.

The local team will line up as follows: Weaver, Hamber and White (University School); Hardisty and Donnelly (St. Aidan's); Thora and Carmichael (St. Michael's); McLaughlin (Duncan High); Reid (Oak Bay High); Payne and another from the T. and V's.

Golf Goat Getters

COPYRIGHT, 1929 BY NEA SERVICE INC.

BY VERNE WICKHAM
One of the most bothersome golfers to play with is one who takes all day to line up his putts. No matter how long or how short, he will take what seems like hours to sight his putt.

Down on his knees he will go, sighting the route from the ball to the cup. Then he gets up and walks around to the other side of the green and gets down on his knees to sight the route from the cup to the ball. Then he stands up and looks the entire green, fairway and rough for the last time before going into his stance over the ball. He'll stand in his stance for minutes and then usually—miss the putt.

All putts have to be lined up. Every good golfer does it and if done with proper moderation there can be nothing said against it. On an undulating green you have to line them up with care—no question about that. The breaks are there and you have to watch for them but it is a bit of golf form which can be carried too far.

Remember there are usually four golfers who have to put on each green and if you take more than your share of time your partners will probably hurry their putts and miss.

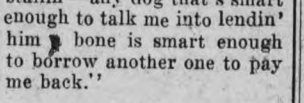

Don't fuss around too long with your putting. If your putt misses, don't drop several balls out of the old hip pocket and practice the same length putt several times while the rest of the foursome wait. Remember, the others are anxious to putt, and back down the fairway is another four-some of fine fellows anxious to play to the green.

Pharmacists Call it "Joint-Ease"

Because its for Swollen Sore Painful Creaky Joints Only

It took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else.

Of course, it can't help but put an end to such superficial ailments, as lumbago, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, crick in the neck or sore feet because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

"Joint-Ease" is a product of Canada and all druggists dispense it daily for about sixty cents a tube, as do first class druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

B.C. DIVIDEND RECORDS SHOW MINING PROFITABLE INDUSTRY

Figures on the record output of metals and minerals in British Columbia, in addition to those published in yesterday's Times show that while, owing to a lower level of metal prices the aggregate value of the year's output, $65,372,583, was $1,816,239 less than that for the record year of 1928, on the other hand the aggregate output of minerals was the greatest on record, the tonnage of metalliferous ore mined and treated being 5,241,310 tons compared with 5,416,621 tons in 1927 and with 4,775,173 tons in 1926. Had metal prices last year been equal to those in 1926, production in 1928 would have been valued at nearly $75,000,000.

By value, the various products of the mineral industry produced in 1928 are ranked in the following order: Copper, lead, coal, zinc, silver, gold, structural materials, miscellaneous metals and minerals. Copper, lead and zinc output were the highest in the history of mining in British Columbia.

The production and value thereof in 1928, as compared with 1927 and 1926, was as follows:

Description	Quantity	Value	Quantity	Value	Quantity	Value
Gold, placer, oz.	20,912	$ 35,503	19,991	$ 32,247	18,424	$ 29,208
Gold, lode, oz.	201,427	4,163,859	178,001	3,679,601	188,087	3,888,097
Silver, oz.	10,440,185	6,675,606	10,440,185	5,962,043	10,227,167	6,182,461
Copper, lb.	89,329,768	12,224,421	89,202,871	10,920,011	97,908,316	14,263,242
Lead, lb.	283,023,937	17,757,535	282,996,423	14,874,292	305,140,792	13,961,412
Zinc, lb.	141,225,445	8,996,125	181,763,147	9,845,613	181,763,147	9,845,613
Coal, tons (2,240)	2,330,036	11,650,180	2,453,627	12,269,135	2,526,702	12,632,510
Coke, tons (2,240)
Structural materials and miscellaneous materials	3,675,128		3,326,894		4,314,040
Totals	871,088,842		890,729,358		965,372,583

The aggregate value of the mineral production of British Columbia since the inception of the industry up to the end of 1928 is placed at $1,114,210,411, segregated as follows:
 Gold (placer) $ 73,318,003
 Gold (lode) 13,540,016
 Silver 92,871,507
 Copper 235,757,321
 Lead 135,812,146
 Zinc 69,493,305
 Coal and Coke 309,601,778
 Struct. and Miss. 57,810,335
 Total $1,114,210,411

The report of the Minister of Mines indicates copper mining had a prosperous year in 1928, production aggregating 89,329,768 pounds, valued at $12,224,421, a record output—but a lower valuation than recorded in the three war years of 1916, 1917 and 1918, when the price of copper was nearly double that of 1928. The sharp advance in the price of copper metal towards the close of the year is reflected in the average yearly price of 14.57 cents last year, as compared with an average price of 12.98 cents in 1927.

LEAD PRODUCTION
 A new high record in production of lead was established during 1928, the output aggregating 305,140,792 pounds, valued at $13,961,412, but owing to the low average price of the year—4.5754 cents a pound—the value was exceeded in 1925, 1926 and 1927. The increased production is partly due to an increase from the Sullivan mine of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, and partly to increases from small shippers in the Omineca and Slocan divisions. The outlook for 1929 is for a larger output. Coal in 1928 took third place in point of value of output, the value being $12,632,510, compared with $12,269,135 in 1927, an increase of 2.97 per cent. Coal mining in the province has been subject to intensive competition in the marketing of the output from crude oil and hydro-electric power, but since 1924 a steady, though small, annual increase in output has been recorded. Improved conditions in the Crow's Nest Pass field and the amalgamation of the principal producers on Vancouver Island are important factors towards improvement of the coal mining industry, which should result in steady growth in the future, and with the immense coal resources of the province and the gradual perfection of more scientific methods of processing and using coal, the yearly output may be expected to grow.

DIVIDENDS

Dividends declared by the leading

Company	1927	1928
Cons. M. & S. Co.	6,358,875	6,366,594
Premier Gold Mining Co. Ltd.	1,701,250	1,300,000
Howe Sound Co.	1,984,152	1,984,152
Duke Mines Ltd.		50,000
Granby Cons. M. S. and P. Co.	348,872	1,344,515
Bell Mine	64,629	55,714
Whitewater R. Ltd.	10,000
Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co. Ltd.	372,760	372,696
Clayburn Co.	32,000	32,000
Others	6,300	51,017
Total	$10,800,838	$11,556,688

The Howe Sound Company is the holding company for the Britannia mine in British Columbia and the El Polco and Cudera mines in Mexico. Dividends paid by this company are therefore derived from the profits on operations of all three mines, so that only part of the dividends paid as shown can be credited to the Britannia mine. But the amount of $11,556,688 shown above as distributed in 1928 by no means represents the total net profits earned during 1928. In nearly all cases substantial sums are set aside from profits to the credit of surplus and reserve accounts. Profits accruing to private companies and individual mining enterprises as a rule are not given publicly as dividends, as is the case with the larger companies, so that no record of these profits, which in the aggregate are considerable, is available. The growth of dividends in recent years is strikingly shown by the following figures:

Year	Dividends
1923	$ 2,809,195
1924	2,896,174
1925	6,319,808
1926	9,747,270
1927	10,800,838
1928	11,556,688

A dividend record of $11,556,688 from a gross production of $65,372,583, or 17.7 per cent, is an excellent one and shows that mining in British Columbia is a profitable industry.

"It Helped All My Troubles"

"I was all run-down and out of spirits before my third baby was born, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as I had heard so much about it. It helped me with all my troubles and gave me an appetite where before I didn't eat at all and had to stop work and rest every once in a while. I did all of my housework up to the day my baby came, as I am a farmer's wife and could not afford help before. I feel just dandy now and I will answer any letters and I will tell every one how good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is."—Mrs. Iva Arnold, Box 63, Rocklake, North Dakota.

INDIAN, 107, HAS WHITE WIFE

When the 107-year-old Indian chief, White Horse Eagle, took his white wife out for a stroll along a Berlin street recently they created a sensation. Despite his age, the chief is still hale and hearty as a man half his years. The chief and his wife, who are engaged in a tour of Europe, are shown above in a Berlin street.

NEWS IN BRIEF

St. John's Ladies Guild will hold a garden tea at the home of Mrs. S. C. Carver, 928 Selkirk Avenue, on Wednesday, June 12.

H. McDonald was fined $5 in Saanich Police Court yesterday for failing to produce his driver's license upon demand of a police officer.

A rummage sale will be held on Saturday, June 1, at 10 a.m. at 214 Menzies Street, the proceeds of which are for the James Bay Church.

H. L. Robinson, charged in Saanich Police Court yesterday with unlawfully discharging a firearm at the Mount Tolmie gravel pit, was remanded until next Thursday.

The regular meeting of the Canadian Pensioners' Association of the Great West, Victoria Branch, will be held to-night at 8 o'clock in the clubrooms, 720 Fisgard Street.

The regular monthly meeting of Court Canada Executor No. 1, Juvenile A.O.F., will be held to-night at 7:30 o'clock. After the meeting a concert will be given and the annual sale of work in aid of the summer picnic will be held.

A decree absolute with costs against the co-respondent was granted Reginald William Sinclair, petitioner, suing Margaret Norah Marrs Sinclair, respondent, for divorce, before Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald in Supreme Court to-day. D. S. Tait appeared for the petitioner in an undefended hearing. The marriage took place at Prince Rupert in 1925.

W. Downes, Dominion entomologist, will speak to-night at a concert at the Strawberry Vale Hall, Burnside Road, being given under the auspices of the Strawberry Vale Women's Institute for the purpose of obtaining funds to pay the cost of collecting and destroying tent caterpillars. Reeve Crouch will act as chairman.

When he pleaded guilty in Saanich Police Court yesterday afternoon to a charge of driving an automobile to the common danger on East Saanich Road, May 18, Fred Cabelud was fined $50 by Magistrate George Jay. Constable Richard Meadows of the provincial police, testified the accused was traveling between fifty and sixty miles an hour.

The prize winners at the whist drive given in St. Paul's Church House last evening under the auspices of the Esquimalt Child Hygiene Council were: First, Mrs. A. Booth and Ted Williams; second, Mrs. F. Locke and Mrs. Mead; third, Mrs. B. Ricketts and Mrs. G. Brooker. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the executive of the organization.

Maytime celebration prizes were presented to scholars of Sir James Douglas School by W. T. Straith, Walter Miles and Harold Palmer, of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce this morning. Scrap prizes were given to winners in the school races May 23. Cash prizes went to the boys who took part in the school bicycle display for the school on the May 24 parade and a handsome silver cup was presented to the school.

Application by the offine Oil Company for permission to erect a service station at the southwest corner of Gorge Road and Government Streets, after the demolition of a dwelling at that site is now before the city. The plans were prepared by Wm. F. Gardner, architect for the company at Vancouver, and work will be executed at a cost of $12,000. Parfitt Bros. have the contract. Permit approval of the approaches necessary is now being sought.

According to word received by N. A. Moore, local fox farmer, G. H. McCallum of Summerside, P.E.I., chief fox inspector for the Dominion of Canada, will be unable to pursue his task this year owing to illness. Great regret was expressed by local foxmen today, as Mr. McCallum has been of invaluable assistance to B.C. fur farmers during the last few years having visited practically all sizable ranches and helped the owners considerably with their problems.

Appointments are announced in this week's issue of the B.C. Gazette as follows: To be Justices of the Peace—George B. Penner, of Queen's Bay; George Nuttall, of 3756 McGill Street, Burnaby; Charles Lloyd Roberts, of Victoria; John Richard Seymour, of Victoria; Henry Twidale, of Granville Bay; to be Stipendiary Magistrate in and for the County of Vancouver; Arthur E. Malgou, of Kamloops, to be a Police Magistrate in and for the City of Kamloops; Francis James Burd, of Vancouver, to be a member of the board of governors of the University of British Columbia in the place of Campbell Sweeney, deceased.

Flowers, candy and a feast of music brought joy to the hearts of thirty-five ladies from the Aged Women's Home, who were guests of the Victoria Broomstick Band at the concert at the Victoria Theatre last night. A brilliant success in a musical sense, the concert was also an occasion of much pleasure for the elderly guests. Their visits to the theatre was organized by Joe North. Bouquets were supplied by Savory's, candy by Rogers's and transportation by the Gray Line Taxi Company. Thanks are extended to these firms for generosity in making the party such a delightful success. And also to the firemen for the invitation.

In the examinations of Trinity College of Music, London, England, which were held in Victoria this week by C. Egerton Lowe, F.T.C.L., thirteen out of the fourteen candidates presented were pupils of Mrs. Wilfrid Ord, L.T.C.L. of the Victoria School of Expression. The marks obtained ranged very high, as even the youngest competitor, who is only ten years of age, obtained 70, the pass mark being 60. The following are the results and marks: Senior division, elocution, Marjorie Graham, 86 (honors), Arabella Hayne, 75, singing, Evelyn Vallant, 81 (honors); Intermediate division, elocution, Pauline Hayward, 80 (honors); Opal Abercrombie, 72, Junior division, elocution, Lucy Shaw, 72, singing, Norman Clark, 80 (honors); Preparatory division, elocution, Nora, 84 (honors); Lilian Pitkethley, 75; Mollie Pallister, 74; Barbara Clowes, 70, singing; Catherine Craig, 80 (honors); Clarence Kirchin, 72.

BUFFALOES WAX ROMANTIC AS POET TRIES HIS HAND

With Hundreds of Suggestions in Hand, Balloting for Buffalo Names Starts To-day With Ten to Choose From; "Vic" and "Van," "Tilly" and "Mac" Are Some of Latest Ideas.

Nature calls to poets—and so do buffaloes. At least so it seems from an item which found its way this morning into the mail bag of The Times Naming Contest Editor. Following is what this poet, who signs himself "A.W.," submits:

"You ask everyone to try his skill And name those hairy buffaloes. Well, who has not heard of Jack and Jill, These are the names that I propose. Or, if you want something happy and jolly, What's the matter with Johnny and Polly. Or, as the famous satirist has it, 'Strange such a difference there should be 'Twix Tweedle-dum and Tweedle-dee'."

In another part of this edition will be found the Times Buffalo Naming Ballot, which contains ten names, selected from the hundreds of suggestions forwarded by citizens who have taken such a great interest in the latest additions to the park animals. All who wish to participate in the selection of the names may send these ballots to the Times Naming Contest Editor, with a mark opposite their choice. All ballots must be sent in before next Wednesday. A progressive count of the balloting will be given during the intervening days.

"VIC" and "VAN" are two of the latest ideas submitted for the buffalo names. The first represents Victoria and the second the island on which the city is situated and both are names which come readily to the tongue. Suggests this contributor who signs himself "Beacon Hill."

"Romeo" and "Juliet" have come to be great favorites with the namesters. As "Buffalo" puts it, all the world loves a lover so why should not these happy couple in the park bear these names.

SHE HAS PLENTY

Miss J. N. Smith has scoured the comic strips, the joke books and fairy tales to secure a list of suggestions and her ideas are "Tilly," "Tilly" and "Mac" to "Pat" and "Mike."

"Sir Loin" and "Tender Loin" is the suggestion offered by William G. Cowan.

The names "Victoria" and "Albert," commemorating Queen Victoria and her consort, Prince Albert, have been steadily favorites from the beginning of the contest and it is expected, will be among the close contenders in the balloting.

(If they can) that they are to be named by popular vote, it is hoped all subscribers to The Times will send in their choices by ballot.

FORBES HIGH TENNIS CHAMP

Defeats Sherratt in Four-set Match; Maxine Ewart Wins Girls' Title

Tommy Forbes and Maxine Ewart this morning won the Victoria High School boys' and girls' tennis championships respectively, while Division XI carried off first honors in the school baseball final, the opening of the High School sports.

Forbes defeated Bobby Sherratt after four sets by scores of 6-4, 2-6, 6-3 and 6-4.

Miss Ewart took her matches against Tristram Forbes in two straight sets, winning by game scores of 6-3 and 7-5. By virtue of his victory over Sherratt, Forbes will receive Peden Bros. perpetual cup, emblematic of the championship in his division, while Miss Ewart will be awarded the girls' perpetual challenge trophy.

In the baseball game, Division XI won by three runs from Division XII, the score being 14-11.

CANNERS JOIN IN PLEA FOR SALMON TREATY

Vancouver, May 31—A special dispatch from Victoria to The Vancouver Province to-day says:

"British Columbia canners have joined some manufacturers in urging the Provincial Government in urging ratification of the Fraser River sockeye salmon conservation treaty, which was announced at the Parliament Buildings to-day, following conferences between members of the Cabinet and Richard Gosse, president of the Canners' Association, last night."

Along with the Provincial Government representations in favor of the treaty, Mr. Gosse dispatched a telegram to the Federal Government urging that the treaty be given the approval of Parliament before it proceeds.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE ISLANDS ROCKED BY EARTHQUAKES

Prince Rupert, May 31—Many residents of Queen Charlotte Islands, more particularly on the south end, were terror-stricken this week when three earthquakes on successive days rocked Moresby, Graham and the smaller islands.

The steamer Prince John, on arrival here, brought stories of several startling occurrences during the tremors on the islands.

At Lockport, the top of a high mountain is reported to have toppled over. Near Sandspit, 500 feet of a beautiful sandy beach slid into the sea.

CHANGE POLICY TO GET RESULTS, REALTORS TOLD

A. V. Clarke Shows Prosperous Industries Built on Skillful Advertising Appeal

Realtors Advised to Stress Home Ownership Advantages Above Price

Advertisements prepared by Victoria's realty concerns lacked ability to create a desire to own property, declared A. V. Clarke, advertising expert, in an address this afternoon before the Victoria Real Estate Board at Spencer's restaurant. He said desirability of location and convenience of homes offered were usually subordinated to cheapness in price, and that other industries, notably successful in attracting the dollar of the consumer, had stressed the factors ignored by realty concerns.

Mr. Clarke declared that real estate advertising had not kept pace with modern progress, and that realty operators had missed the selling appeal when preparing advertisements, by dwelling too strictly on price and ignoring the advantages of home ownership. The view he supported by reference to the development of the automobile and radio industries, which achieved success by appealing to the pleasure to be acquired through purchase.

AFTER SAME DOLLARS

"They are all competing with you for the same dollars you desire to attract," he pointed out, quoting outstanding examples of advertisements in the "Times" which illustrated the delights to be acquired. He contrasted the lack of this quality in the realty advertising, and the featuring thereof of low price.

"It stands to reason that no good five-room house can be had for $1,000," he criticized.

"These skillful arguments of your competitors for the buyers' dollar are what offset your advertising appeal for business," he commented, suggesting that realty firms feature the location, beauty or facilities of homes offered, the view, neighborhood or the availability of schools nearby.

"There is no need to these appeals you can make. True, it is no task for one firm, but you can co-operate in creating this desire to own a home in Victoria," Mr. Clarke advised.

Lack of immediate results was itself proof that the wording of the advertisement was bad, and the speaker suggested that the head of the firm should personally supervise advertising.

WRONG PRINCIPLE

G. Stewart Clark, president, agreed that advertising of realty "snaps" was a bad policy, giving a false impression of prevailing values, especially to visitors to the city. "It is a wrong principle," he remarked.

Alfred Carmichael, moving a vote of thanks, recalled previous co-operation which had collapsed when speedy results had not followed, and subscribers had demanded payment of sums pledged. He urged the revival of the community effort. Mr. Clark pointed out that his appeal was for improvement of the advertising material of individual concerns.

Major H. Cuthbert Holmes, seconding the vote of thanks, believed the Victoria Real Estate Board's aggregate. He also pointed to the advertising of bargains by large stores, as evidence of the good business basis of that policy.

"The fellow who comes to your office when you advertise a $1,000 bargain, eventually is worked up to pay the home he seeks. Nearly all buyers eventually pay about double what they at first think they want to pay," Major Clark pointed out.

CLOSE ON MONDAY

Officers of members of the board will close on Monday, June 3, in honor of the birthday of King George.

The members congratulated Mr. Carmichael upon his election as president of the Victoria Real Estate Board.

No further steps will be taken until September in preparation of a rental survey. D. Leeming reported that lack of general co-operation by members of the board last spring had prevented progress.

The Real Estate Board will visit Sooke district on June 8, and will hold a luncheon at the Belvedere Hotel at 2 o'clock.

Major K. B. Spurgin won support for a plan to organize an association of bride paths near Victoria.

LOSES HIS DEPOSIT

London, May 31—G. William Rowlands, the workingman, who recently was elected chairman of the Conservative Party organization, lost his election deposit in Pontypool in the general election yesterday. Tom Griffiths, Laborite, was elected.

BIG POLICY OF EXPANSION BY OIL FIRM

Important Construction Programme Here Announced by Imperial Oil Officials

One New Station on Douglas St.; Old Stations to Be Made Into "Supers"

An expansion policy involving heavy financial outlay in the city by Imperial Oil Limited was announced to-day by F. D. LeLacheur, local manager.

The announcement was authorized following the visit here yesterday of executive officials from the company's head office at Toronto.

"We are showing our faith in Victoria by launching a number of new construction undertakings," said Mr. LeLacheur this morning. "Our existing stations will be made into super-service stations."

START NEW SUPER STATION

He said the Imperial Oil Limited planned to proceed on Monday with the demolition of the old buildings occupying the southeast corner of Douglas and Broughton Streets preliminary to the construction of the super-service station on the site immediately adjoining the Strathcona Hotel. This building will cost approximately $10,000.

Parfitt Bros. Limited are building a new station for the company on Johnson Street, immediately east of the Johnson Street Bridge and abutting on the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway depot property. There were no footings on this property and special foundation of steel and concrete had to be constructed to facilitate the erection of the building.

Important changes are planned to the main Imperial oil service station at the southeast corner of Quadra and Yates Streets, the existing structure being brought to the front of the street and otherwise improved. This work will be started at once.

Extensions are also planned to the No. 6 station at the southwest corner of Quadra Street and Pandora Avenue. Improvements will be made in the immediate future to the company's stations at the intersection of Fort Street and Pandora Avenue, known as the Oak Bay Junction, and also at the station located at Moss Street and Fairfield Road.

Under the new expansion programme the company plans the erection of another station, the location of which cannot be announced for the present, according to Mr. LeLacheur.

IS RE-ELECTED IN GREAT BRITAIN

The officials of the Imperial Oil Limited who were in the city yesterday in connection with the new construction programme were: A. F. Halverson, assistant general sales manager for Western Canada and Hartley Knowles, head of the construction department, both of Toronto, and M. A. McDowell, sales manager for British Columbia; R. E. Corcoran, assistant sales manager for B.C., and R. G. Haley, superintendent of construction for B.C., all of Vancouver.

FAILED TO UNSEAT GOVERNOR HARTLEY

Scott Bullitt, Democratic Politician of Washington State, Here on Visit

Scott Bullitt, who unsuccessfully opposed Governor Roland Hartley as Democratic candidate for the governorship of Washington State, is in Victoria to-day from Seattle. He is with Seattle party who arrived at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon, and plans to spend the week-end at Qualicum Beach.

Mr. Bullitt is a member of the National Democratic Committee, presided over by John J. Rascoe, Al Smith's chief lieutenant.

Two years ago Mr. Bullitt opposed Senator Jones as representative for Washington in the U.S. Senate.

The Democratic fighter stated to-day that he did not propose to run again for public office. In his campaign against Governor Hartley, Mr. Bullitt advocated the sale of liquor similar to the system of government control in force in British Columbia.

On his present trip to Victoria he is accompanied by Mrs. Bullitt and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Black of Seattle.

DR. DOLMAGE QUILTS GOVERNMENT POST

Vancouver, May 31—Dr. Victor Dolmage, connected with the geological survey branch of the Federal Mines Department here since 1923, has resigned to become associated with Stewart, Batter and associates, mining engineers, it was announced to-day.

Pay $50,000 In Ingenika Mine Deal

Following the $171,000 cheque from the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company yesterday on the George Copper, cheques on another big B.C. mining payment went, through to-day when W. R. Wilson of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company paid $50,000 to John Ferguson, Chris Frank and other associates of Victoria in the original prospecting syndicate for the acquisition of the Ferguson property on the Ingenika River.

To-day's payment follows a preliminary one for $25,000 made a few months ago. Some 20,000 acres adjoining the original Ferguson silver-lode discovery have now been taken up and plans are now up for the construction of a branch line of railway into the new mine area by way of Finlay Fork, the financed by the Wilson interests. The property is now under development with a crew of some forty men and is reported to surpass the Sullivan mine at Kimberley in the extent of its showings.

Mrs. Annie Gillies Westman was named superintendent of the Girls' Industrial Home at Vancouver by order-in-council passed to-day. Mrs. Catherine Edith Mary Dickson was named matron.

"LOVE IS OF THE VALLEY"

By DAVID LYALL

"Oh, yes, more than you think. There are women who would call out for new frocks on the judgment day. I believe. If I'd been absolutely on my own, I'd have given up months ago."

"Why doesn't the old lady come back?"

"Well, she's really been trying to get back for about ten months now. She stopped away purposely for over a year, to give me a chance, and now, when she wants to get back, she finds it difficult to get either a passport or a boat. But she thinks she's going to be successful at last. You see, I hadn't any agreement with her. She didn't buy herself out, or anything. It wasn't an ordinary business transaction at all, and I haven't the right either to shut down or give up, because I didn't pay anything for the goodwill, and it's still hers."

"Sounds a bit complicated, I must say," observed Jimmy reflectively.

"It's really quite simple. Didn't I tell you I was trying to save up to pay off some of the debt left at my father's death?"

"I think I remember, either you told me, or Alice."

"It's just as simple as that. I've been in charge of the causality clearing station, one of the biggest on the French front."

"I suppose it's pretty awful, isn't it?"

Jimmy nodded and turned his head away.

"Isn't there something I could do up there, couldn't you make a place for me?"

He shook his head.

"It's only trained women that are of use, and not all of them can stand it."

"I could, Jimmy, I'm sure. If only I had a chance to serve instead of pottering about here, talking to senseless and selfish women about their clothes. I'm getting desperate. Unless Madame Theodore comes soon I'm afraid I shan't be able to hold out."

Jimmy said nothing, but looked sympathetic. He wished to ask some questions about Ida, but a natural shyness made it difficult. At last he blurted it out.

"Do you ever hear from your sister now?"

Beatrice shook her head.

"Never. I've had only one letter and a post card since the war began. Isn't it frightful to think about? Can you imagine a more appalling position for a Scotswoman to be in?"

There are a good many, both Scotch and English, in the same boat, I'm afraid. They're to be pitied, yes, and the line of least resistance, I should imagine, would be the only open way to them. They'll have to hold their tongues, anyhow."

"It is getting on my nerves, I dream about her sometimes and always she seems to be holding out her hands to me."

"Don't get morbid about it," said Jimmy in his quiet, strong sympathetic way. "Probably it is not so bad as you imagine. A life seemed to think he'd be kind to her, anyway."

"Oh, Jimmy! cried Beatrice impulsively. "It's only since I married you that I'm better off than I was."

Jimmy shook his head.

"Perhaps it was better as it is. I may not come through, you know."

"Be quiet, I won't let you speak like that! And anyhow, even if you did, you would be a glorious death, and not an inglorious life like his. Tell me, Jimmy, you've got over it, haven't you? I'd like to be sure of that."

He nodded, and his eyes, meeting hers, were tranquil and assuring.

"Oh, yes, life, and knocking about the world a bit helps a chap a lot. There are other things in the world than love. It's the best, though," he added, with a queer jerk in his voice. "For the lucky ones who come up with it. Queer, wasn't it, that I should meet Brod out in Singapore? An awfully decent chap. Did you ever meet him here?"

"Yes," said Beatrice, and her voice fell very low. "Soon after his father died. Don't you remember, he told you. It was in the letter you wrote to me."

"Oh, so it was! He was very keen asking questions about you. A splendid chap. I'm always hoping I'll come across him in France."

"Is he there, Jimmy?"

"Of course, where else would he be?" he asked, with a faintly ironical note in his pleasant voice. "He's not the stuff that slackers are made of. And anyway, I was told he was with the Yeomanry somewhere. I dare say we may come across one another. All sorts of queer things happen out there, the queerer they are, the surer they are to happen. All life is topsy-turvy."

"At that moment, when feeling had grown almost too tense for speech, a light tap came to the door, and Lizzie Anderson opened it.

"Please, Miss Bee, could you see Miss Brodie from Linnorrie? She's waiting."

"Where, Lizzie? Downstairs, in the show-room?"

"No, ma'am, she's at the door. I wasn't sure as the Captain was here," said Lizzie, regarding him with pride and admiration, which caused him to smile. "She's waiting for you."

Jimmy, having time on his hands which frankly he did not know what to do with, sank meekly back into his chair as Beatrice closed the door. She was only a few minutes gone, he could hear the quick murmur of talk out in the little hall, then the door opened again, and they came in together. A more dainty, winsome thing than Monica in her nurse's uniform it would be difficult to imagine. Already the sight of her had wrought havoc in the ward's mind. A more pitiful, doing good to some, and harm to others, causing mysterious rises of temperature, and agitated, sometimes moody, silence. Beatrice introduced the two with pride, and Monica smiled bravely up into Jimmy's eyes, and then wiping out for ever the last shadow of another's image.

"What, what luck am I in to-day!" said Beatrice. "Now we'll have a tea party, the best I've ever had. Put down your cap and gloves this moment, Jimmy. Order, and don't pretend you're in a hurry, when you know perfectly well you're not. No, they don't want you at the Manse. If I let you away in time for their 3 o'clock tea, you'll do perfectly well, and now it's only half-past three."

PULITZER PRIZE MIGHT BE GIVEN RADIO SUCCESS

Joseph Freed Endeavors to Obtain Recognition For Achievements in Radio

The recognition of radio as an art which influences the daily life of the nation as much as any other art, was the purpose of Joseph D. R. Freed, president of the Freed-Eisman Radio Corporation, when he called upon the Pulitzer Prize Advisory Board to consider adding a Pulitzer prize for radio to its yearly awards. The substance of Mr. Freed's letter to the board is as follows:

"I am sure that you will agree with me that radio takes its place with journalism, letters and other arts in its relationship to the nation. The yearly Pulitzer prize awards, beyond the shadow of a doubt, focus the public interest upon the outstanding achievement in each of the fields in which it is awarded."

"I believe that the terms of the will of the late Joseph Pulitzer are elastic enough to permit the awarding a Pulitzer prize each year for radio's outstanding achievement, and I hereby call upon you as a member of the School of Journalism's Advisory Board to consider adding a Pulitzer prize for radio to its yearly awards, so that the public may appreciate each year radio's great advances."

"If the problem of finance should be a drawback in connection with this award, I am willing to organize a committee among radio broadcasters and manufacturers to raise the necessary funds to make this possible."

Dogs as Physicians

We have all of us seen how dogs cure their own wounds by licking them, and so keeping them clear of infection. However, few of us know that the savages of Patagonia set a high value upon canines, not only as comrades in the hunt and as guardians of their possessions, but as physicians. Receiving frequent wounds in battle, or in accidents of the chase, and observing how well their dogs did in treating themselves, these savages were accustomed to submit their wounds to be licked by their pets.

Insects have no noses, but breathe through their skins.

Does your birthday fall in June? Commencing on June 1 The Times will start a birthday club for boys and girls of sixteen years of age and under. All that is necessary to do is to fill out the coupon shown below and mail it to "Birthday Club," The Times, Victoria, B.C.

So that The Times may extend its hearty good wishes to you on your birthday, make sure that you state your name, address and birthday on the coupon attached below. If you have brothers or sisters, or both, get them to write their birthday dates and names too. Any paper will do, but attach all replies to the coupon given herewith.

Frances Alda was a lonely little girl. Her father and mother had both died, only a short time apart, and life is very hard for any girl who finds herself an orphan.

She was an English girl, living in New Zealand, and she had a dear grandmother who lived in Melbourne, Australia, and who sent for her. Frances made the trip by herself, and finally arrived, a shy and timid child, at her grandmother's home.

Frances loved to sing, and her grandmother, to keep the girl's mind off her troubles, let her study music. Never did any girl practice harder than Frances, and her sweet voice, echoing about the house, was a great delight to her grandmother, who was glad her granddaughter turned to singing, instead of moping.

It happened that Frances had an aunt who was a concert singer. On a visit, she was struck with the girl's voice, and offered to help her make a career of music. Frances Alda, whose birthday is to-day, is now one of the leading singers of the world.

BEDTIME STORY Uncle Wiggily's Sand Sifter

(Copyright, 1929, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

By HOWARD K. GARIS

One afternoon Baby Bunty took Cutie and Tootie, the newest little rabbit girls in Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow, down to the end of the yard to play in the sand pile. Uncle Wiggily had made a fine, large sand pile for his little bunnies to play in. "What are you going to do, Bunty?" asked Cutie, for this was the first time she had been taken to the sand pile to play. "Oh, we'll make holes in the sand and pretend they are wells," said the little orphan rabbit. "And we'll make hills of sand and then we'll make pies."

Baby Bunty began to sift the sand.

"Here they are!" said the little orphan rabbit, taking some out from beneath a bench at the sand pile. "I had them when I played here yesterday." "But where is the sand sifter?" asked Tootie. "I'll have to go in and get Nurse Jane's coffee strainer to sift the sand in," said Bunty. "You wait here for me and be good." Well, Cutie and Tootie were as good as they knew how to be, but that wasn't much, I can tell you. For Cutie tossed some sand up in the air and it fell down on Tootie's head and got in her fur and Tootie cried. Then she threw some sand up in the air and it fell down and got on Cutie's back and tickled her and she cried and when Baby Bunty came back with the coffee strainer sand sifter, both little rabbits were sobbing. "Oh, don't do that!" begged Bunty. "I knew something would happen if I left you for a moment. Now I'll sift some sand and we'll make pies and have a lot of fun and you must stop crying." So Tootie and Cutie stopped crying as they watched Baby Bunty begin to sift the sand, but the little orphan rabbit had not sifted more than enough for half a pie before Nurse Jane, in the kitchen doorway of the hollow stump bungalow, cried: "Ho, Bunty! Did you take my coffee strainer?" "Yes, Nurse Jane," answered Bunty. "I'm using it to sift sand to make pies for Cutie and Tootie." "Well, I'm sorry," said the muskrat lady housekeeper, "but your Ma has company and she wants me to make some coffee and I'll have to strain it and you'll have to bring that strainer right back here." "All right," said Baby Bunty politely,

To-morrow's Horoscope

SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1929
Astrologers read this as a favorable day in planetary direction. Certain adverse influences are active, however. It is a date most fortunate for all amusement enterprises and especially promising for musical programmes. Theatres should benefit from this direction of the stars, which encourages beauty and idealism, rather than sordid realism. Gardens are to become extraordinarily lovely in America, where supreme art will be brought to country estates; it is foretold. All the signs appear to presage for the United States a period in which super achievements will be the rule in the arts as well as commerce and business. It has been frequently prophesied by those who read the future that immense wealth will continue to pile up and many new millionaires result in the year 1929. Lovers should flourish under this sway, which is believed to incline both men and women toward romance. It is a lucky day for weddings for long and harmonious association is indicated. Prosperity should attend to-day's marriages. While the planetary government encourages activity in the realm of intellectual or artistic pursuits it is not favorable for financial ventures. The wise will defer dealings with bankers or creditors until a more auspicious date. Writers of every class may find this rather an unsatisfactory direction of the stars, but it merely arrests activity before assuming improved work, the seers declare. Again the rise of new authors of splendid attainments is prophesied. Fiction as well as biography and history should benefit greatly from the planetary government of the next few months. Persons whose birthdate it is have the forecast of a year of fair prosperity, but there may be law suits. Caution regarding legal papers is recommended. Children born on this day probably will be fascinating in personality and artistic in their tastes. These subjects of Gemini may have varied talents and surprising careers. Eben Tourgee, musician, was born on this date, 1824. Others who claimed this as a birthday were Julius Tilton, 1745, famous physician, and Brigham Young, 1801, Mormon leader. (Copyright, 1929)

The Arctic ptarmigan and the snow owl have a winter plumage so white as to be all but invisible against the snowy background. Northern hare and the weasle turn white when winter comes, particularly in the more northern latitudes. Butterflies fish, found in West Africa, have wings as well as fins; they jump three or four feet out of the water, then alight and glide along the surface.
